MARIAN CONSECRATION WITH 33 DAYS TO MORNING GLORY

If you are looking for a way to develop a closer relationship with Jesus Christ, you might be surprised that the quickest, surest, and easiest way may be by developing a special relationship with Our Blessed Mother, Mary.

Starting September 4 our parish will begin a 33-day preparation for Marian Consecration on October 7, the Feast of Our Lady of the Rosary. For six weeks, we will individually read about and reflect on four great Marian giants: St. Louis deMontfort, St. Maximilian Kolbe, Blessed Mother Teresa, and Pope John Paul II. They will teach us the secrets to drawing closer to the Heart of Jesus through the Heart of Mary.

The preparation may be done individually at home or as a weekly group study where we will share our insights within our small group and then watch a 30-minute video. The video by popular author and speaker, Fr. Michael Gaitley, MIC, brings our individual reflections and group experience into a clear and live-able focus.

Please consider participating in Marian Consecration with the 33 Days to Morning Glory. Contact Teresa Glenn at tjk1025@aol.com or Marilyn Ivory at mclivory@gmail.com for more information.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Friday is the feast day of one of the most unexplainably overlooked saints of the Church, Saint Bernard of Clairvaux (1090-1153). He is not to be confused with another St. Bernard, St. Bernard de Menthon, who founded the monastery that became famous for the lovable Swiss rescue dogs, but had to be content with being one of the most illustrious figures of the Middle Ages.

Rev. Bruno Scott James, who edited and translated a rewarding book on Bernard's letters, paid eloquent tribute to him when he wrote that Every age has its great men. They strut across the pages of history full of sound and fury, and then they are gone. Darkness overtakes them and the dust they stir up by their brief...progress settles into the dry records of their biographers. Great men they may be, but they are of their age and with their age they pass away. Yet some few are great enough to transcend the limitations of their age with a message for all time. Shining more with the light of God than with their own, the light they shed remains to inspire men to seek the things that are above and to guide their steps through the storms and darkness of life. Such a man, beyond all question, was Saint Bernard of Clairvaux.

In the twelfth century the Cistercians became the Church's dominant monastic force, launching a reform movement that intended to adopt strict adherence to the ancient Rule of St. Benedict, revered as the founder of western monasticism. The monks who founded the Cistercians had previously belonged to the wealthy and powerful Cluniac monks, but wanted a more austere way of life emphasizing stringent penance and simplicity. One branch of the Cistercians came to be known as the Trappists, who begin their communal prayers at 2:00 a.m. and today support themselves by making and selling products that range from beautiful and expensive vestments to tasty fudge and gourmet jellies.

Bernard became the abbot of their remote and almost desert-like monastery at Citeaux in the forbiddingly named French valley of Wormwood. Soon this Cistercian abbey generated 67 daughter monasteries, and the home valley came to be known as Clairvaux (the valley of light). Besides the monasteries that stemmed from Clairvaux, hundreds of other

Cistercian foundations arose throughout Europe. Famed for his writings, St. Bernard came to be numbered as one of the Doctors (or great teachers) of the Church. He also served the Church in various diplomatic assignments popes of his era asked him to undertake, which included preaching in support of the second Crusade and mediating many ecclesiastical disputes.

Bernard could be blunt in his writings. The famous Trappist Thomas Merton noted that he wrote to a bishop-elect:

It is laid down that we should love others as we love ourselves. But if you were to love others as you have hitherto loved yourself, I for one would not wish to be committed to your care.

St. Bernard could also be lavishly articulate in his praise. When a young priest named Philip stopped by Clairvaux on his way to the Holy Land, he became so impressed by the life there that he joined the Cistercians. Bernard commented that

He is no longer an inquisitive onlooker, but a devout inhabitant and an enrolled citizen of Jerusalem; but not of that earthly Jerusalem to which Mount Sinai in Arabia is joined, and which is in bondage with her children, but of that free Jerusalem which is above and the mother of us all. And this, if you want to know, is Clairvaux.

MISSIONARY VISIT

THIS WEEKEND—AUGUST 14-15

Rev. Constantine Mlelwa is here this weekend representing the Catholic Diocese of Tanga in Tanzania/East Africa as part of the Archdiocesan Missionary Cooperative Plan (MCP).

The MCP offers the opportunity for us to reflect on our vital role in the universal mission of the Church to spread the Gospel and the need to strengthen our concern for our brothers and sisters around the world.

Fr. Contantine was ordained a priest in 2014. Since then, he has served as pastor in several parishes in Tanzania. Since August 2020, he has been a graduate student in Pastoral Ministry at Duquesne University in Pittsburgh, PA.

Fr. Constantine comes to us with a special need: There are 29 diocesan major seminarians in Tanzania/East Africa who are now in formation in the national seminaries and are in vital need of our support to help them complete their studies and move on to the priesthood.

You can make out your check to “Saint Joseph Church,” put “MCP” in the memo section and drop it in the collection basket or in the parish office mailbox after Mass. Thank you for your support of our Church’s missions.

THE ASSUMPTION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY —AUGUST 15

Taken up to heaven in body and soul, Our Blessed Mother points to and directs us toward our final destiny. Life eternal waits! Any disappointment, fear, or anxiety can be set aside as she gently reassures us of God’s love and promise. Always a mother filled with grace and hope, she calls us to reaffirm our faith in God and in the gifts we have each been given. We can persevere and do what we need to do to live life well, with faith, hope, and love as our guiding lights. Knowing who we are and who we will one day become helps us to better chart the course and direction of our earthly lives. Looking to the example of our Blessed Mother, we receive the assurance we need. ©LPi

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

“And Mary said, “My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord; my spirit rejoices in God my savior.”

Luke 1: 46

After Jesus, we look to Mary as our model of Stewardship. Her entire life was lived in obedience to God’s will. Just as the moon reflects the light of the sun, Mary reflects the light of Christ. Like Mary, we too are called to reflect Christ to the world. We do this by living grateful and generous lives. We do this by putting other’s needs before our wants.
