ARCHDIOCESE OF NEWARK
9/11 REMEMBRANCE
SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 8
AT 5:00 PM

Cathedral Basilica of the Sacred Heart

The events of September 11, 2001 irrevocably changed the lives of victims' families and friends, survivors, first responders, rescue and recovery workers, volunteers, and millions of Americans and people around the world. Today, the legacies of the attacks continue to affect foreign policy, national security, civic discourse and countless individual lives.

The attacks also provided numerous examples of individuals helping others in whatever way they could, often at the expense of their own safety, under difficult circumstances. Their humanity and selflessness offer a counter to the horror of that day and provide an example as we face difficult moments today and moving forward.

THE CARDINAL INVITES YOU TO ATTEND

The Scholarship Fund for Inner-City Children and Cardinal Joseph W. Tobin, C.Ss.R. welcome all the faithful to a 9/11 Remembrance Ceremony (on the 20th Anniversary) on Wednesday, September 8 at the 5:00 pm Mass at the Cathedral Basilica of the Sacred Heart in Newark, NJ. All are welcome to this special service. For further information, please call 973-497-4279.

Dear Monsignor Hubba,

The Vicar General and I have reviewed your recent request regarding the appointment of a new Lay trustee for your parish.

[Together with] the approval of the Regional Bishop, I hereby appoint Mr. Frederick Fakharzadeh as a Lay Trustee of Saint Joseph Church.

We would like to convey our best wishes and appreciation to Mr. Fakharzadeh as he assumes the responsibilities of a Parish trustee.

Sincerely in Christ the Redeemer

SAINT JOSEPH'S
MASS & ROSARY
20TH ANNIVERSARY OF 9/11

—SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 11, 2021

Everyone is invited to attend a special commemoration of the 20th Anniversary of 9/11 on Saturday, September 11 in Saint Joseph's Upper Church.

Prior to the Mass which will be celebrated at 8:30 am, there will be a Patriotic Rosary at 8:00 am lead by the Legion of Mary and the Prayer Warriors. The Saint Joseph Youth Group and the parish Music Ministry will also be participating. Refreshments in Mary's Chapel will follow.

THE SJCC AND OUR YOUTH GROUP WORK TO HELP THOSE IN NEED

After the 8:30 am Mass on Saturday, September 11 (see above), the Saint Joseph Youth Group will join with Saint Joseph Care Corner to make Patriot Day even more meaningful by spending a part of it assembling care kits for Children's Aid and Family Services. Thanks to the support of our parish we are able to provide 100 personal care kits. Thank you!

Donations to the Saint Joseph Care Corner are always needed and can be dropped into the black bin on Grand Street behind the church. All personal care toiletries, diapers, and cleaning supplies are gratefully accepted. Any questions, call Peg Kohli at 201-391-0224.

ANNOUNCING OUR NEW PARISH LAY TRUSTEE
Dr. Fred Fakharzadeh

When Parish Lay Trustee Brendan Walsh and his wife Marge made their recent decision to relocate to Pompton Plains, Saint Joseph Parish was left without a required second Lay Trustee. (Mrs. Carol Winkler serves as our other Trustee.)

It is with great pleasure that we announce the appointment by Cardinal Tobin of longtime Saint Joseph parishioner, Dr. Fred Fakharzadeh, as our new Trustee. Fred is both a Lector and Coordinator of Men's Cornerstone, and serves in a number of other ministries as well. Thank you, Fred, for being willing to take on this important role for Saint Joseph Parish.

← See the letter from Cardinal Tobin at LEFT.

More information about both of our Trustees will appear in a future issue of our bulletin.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Some years ago there was a genial TV comedy series called “The Many Loves of Dobie Gillis,” about the life of a 17-year-old. One of Dobie’s friends was Maynard G. Krebs, a likable beatnik played by Bob Denver, who is still trying to escape from “Gilligan’s Island,” as the reruns attest. Whenever the word “work” was spoken, Maynard spontaneously flinched in horror. With Labor Day at hand, we can benefit from looking at the Catholic attitude to work—pace Maynard.

The late William J. Toth taught at Seton Hall University and our seminary, and became a permanent deacon for our Archdiocese. (His son, Father Stephen Toth, is a Catholic chaplain at The Valley Hospital.) Professor Toth wrote a fine article on the Catholic meaning of work, which I relied on for the substance of this piece.

He pointed out that our values “serve the fulfillment of the worker, society, and the glory of God.” Furthermore,

... work has an innate dignity. Its value is not gauged on the basis of the market value of what is produced but from the fact that the one who works is a human person, a being of transcendent dignity.

We first encounter this truth in the opening book of the Bible. Genesis says that God called on the first human beings to “cultivate and care” for the world (2, 5-6) and gave us both dominion over it and responsibility for it (1, 28). This means that our work makes us collaborators with God. Toth cites the words of St. Ambrose, one of the chief Fathers of the Western Church, who noted that “Every worker is that hand of Christ that continues to create and to do good.”

Jesus, of course, spent most of his earthly life as a worker. As a boy, he would have learned his occupation as a carpenter from St. Joseph. We need no further testimony to the importance of working, whether it takes the form of manual or mental labor, or our efforts at home or our voluntary contributions to the human community. Work takes its place in a central triad of life, which also includes time for leisure and the worship of God. As Toth gracefully puts it, they “offer a rhythmic balance to human existence.”

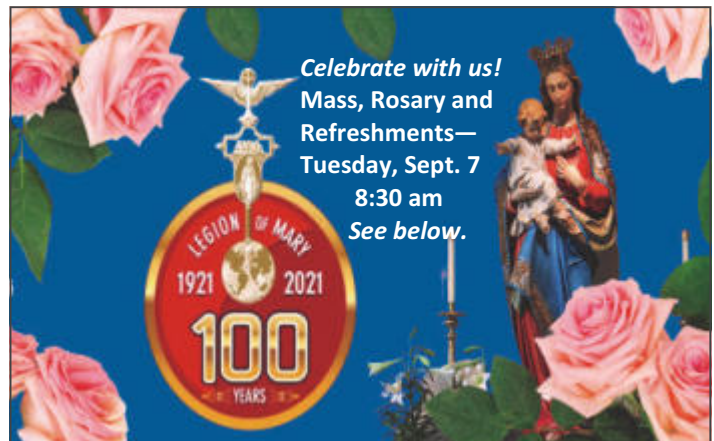

Professor Toth notes that the importance of our work has had an important place in recent Church teachings. As just one instance, he cites St. John Paul II’s apostolic exhortation On the Dignity and Vocation of the Laity, in which he comments on a key passage from Vatican II’s Lumen Gentium (The Light of Humanity). Both passages insist that the secular world is both the place and “the means for the laity to fulfill their Christian vocation.”

Finally, Toth calls attention to what may be an insufficiently noticed part of Mass, when the priest prays over the bread and wine before they are consecrated:

The celebration of the Eucharist offers each Catholic the opportunity to place his or her work with its triumphs and failures on the paten and offer it to God.

MARIAN CONSECRATION

WITH 33 DAYS TO MORNING GLORY

Our parish is participating in a 33-day preparation for Marian Consecration (concluding on October 7, the Feast of Our Lady of the Rosary). For six weeks, we will individually read about and reflect on four great Marian giants: St. Louis deMontfort, St. Maximilian Kolbe, Blessed Mother Teresa, and Pope John Paul II. They will teach us the secrets to drawing closer to the Heart of Jesus through the Heart of Mary.

The preparation may be done individually at home or as a weekly group study (beginning Sept. 13) where we will share our insights within our small group and then watch a 30-minute video. The video by popular author and speaker, Fr. Michael Gaitley, MIC, brings our individual reflections and group experience into a clear and live-able focus.

Please consider participating in Marian Consecration with the 33 Days to Morning Glory. Contact Teresa Glenn at tjk1025@aol.com or Marilyn Ivory at mclivory@gmail.com for more information.

If you plan to join and already have your book, please contact one of us because there is limited space and we want to prepare properly for everyone!
