FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

It would be hard to come up with a better analog for the spiritual life than a pilgrimage. After all, we're on the way somewhere in our lives and aren't just staying put.

Soon after Our Lord's earthly life, Christian pilgrims began making their way to the places where he set foot, taught and worked, especially to Jerusalem, where he died for us and rose from the dead. Much later, Christian pilgrims journeyed to such revered destinations as Canterbury, where St. Thomas Becket was martyred at the altar of his cathedral, and Compostella, where the tomb of St. James was venerated by pilgrims who made the arduous walk along the famous camino trail.

Canterbury pilgrims

Pilgrimages and other travels of spiritual significance also preceded Christian times. Psalm 107 speaks of journeys of futility:

Some wandered in the desert, in the wilderness, finding no way to a city they could dwell in.

Hungry they were and thirsty;
their soul was fainting within them.

They cried to the Lord in their need and he rescued them from their distress and he led them along the right way, to reach a city they could dwell in.

St. John Vianney, known as the Curé (parish priest) of Ars, led a life of amazing austerity. He worked tirelessly among his people and the many pilgrims who came, often for fifteen or sixteen hours a day, to make their confession to him. He was certainly no adherent to a non-carbohydrate diet, since for years his typical meal consisted of a potato or two and a cup of milk, a strong irony since he lived near Brillat-Savarin, the most eminent expert on food in France's history.

In addition to his other priestly duties, St. John gave regular catechetical talks to children and adults. Many of these talks, presented in simple and direct language, have survived. In one of them, the Curé spoke of how prayer strengthened him on a long journey he once had to make:

Prayer ... makes time pass very quickly and with such great delight that one does not notice its length. Listen: Once when I was a purveyor in Bresse and most of my companions were ill, I had to make a long journey. I prayed to the good God, and, believe me, the time did not seem long.

Prayer sustained the Curé, and it can do the same for us, including in the most difficult of our trials. For St. John, prayer was no grim obligation, but a joyous delight. As he once said:

Prayer is nothing else but union with God. ... In this intimate union, God and the soul are fused together like two bits of wax that no one can ever pull apart. The union of God with a tiny creature is a lovely thing. It is a happiness beyond understanding.

Msgr. David Hubba

... from NEW HOPE
"Once again, New Hope Pregnancy Resource Center in Westwood extends our heartfelt thanks to the parishioners of Saint Joseph Church for your incredible generosity of spirit in response to our talk which raised about $1,300.

We are truly blessed to have you as partners in our outreach mission to women in crisis pregnancies and to young moms and their babies.

If you would like to volunteer, please contact marilyn@newhopeprc.org or call 201-722-4705.

Ministry Spotlight

VOCATION MINISTRY

While God inspires all vocations, the programs and activities of a parish can invite and encourage individuals to be open to God's call.

Our parish Vocation Ministry seeks to facilitate and assist ministries in every stage of parish life to support and promote vocations through prayer and activities that establish a vocations-minded presence among both youths and adults within the parish. Through the prayers and efforts of our parishioners, our parish can encourage more young people to consider the priesthood or religious life or spend more time thinking about the meaning of marriage and thereby help individuals move toward holiness and discern God's will in their lives.

For more information, please contact Tom Moran at tmoran61@gmail.com or any of our priests.
