THE SYNOD “ONLINE SURVEY” SHARE YOUR THOUGHTS

As part of a two-year Synodal journey initiated by Pope Francis and designed to re-examine the way the Catholic Church is listening to and walking with its parishioners, Saint Joseph is asking you to share your opinions on what is expected of today’s Church, as asked in the following questions posed by the Pope:

- What does the Holy Spirit expect of the Church of the 21st Century?
- How is this “journeying together” happening today in our parish community?
- How are we “walking together” as a Church, and what steps does the Holy Spirit invite us to take in order to grow in our journeying together?

We invite you to reflect and pray on these questions and then share your thoughts, concerns and ideas in regard to these specific questions, by going to our website at sjcnj.org/links/

There you will find both the Survey and additional information about the goals of the Synod from the Vatican and Archdiocesan websites as well as Cardinal Tobin’s video message.

You are then welcome to fill out the Synod Survey found there on our website.

If you have any questions or additional comments, please feel free to send them to synod@sjcnj.org

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Prominent entertainers who died in 2021:

- Larry King: King, who took his show business name from an ad of a Miami Beach store ("King's Wholesale Liquor"), interviewed 30,000 people, many of them celebrities and politicians. Obituary writer Lukas J. Alpernt described him as follows: "Known for his rolled-up shirt sleeves, suspenders and pompadour hairstyle, Mr. King had a gravelly baritone that gave off an authoritative, no-nonsense air. But his reputation for gentle questioning made his show, 'Larry King Live,' the go-to destination for anyone embroiled in controversy." He was married eight times.
- Cloris Leachman: She had numerous TV and film roles as a comic actress, my own favorite being her one as "Frau Blücker" in Mel Brooks's Young Frankenstein (1974), where the mere mention of her name caused any nearby horse to raise up in terror. She also offered "Dr. Frankenstein" (Gene Wilder) refreshments three times, including "Some Ovaltine?"
- Hal Holbrook: His one-man portrayal of Mark Twain was a three-time Broadway success. He also played "Deep Throat" in the film All the President's Men and Commander Joseph Richefort, the naval intelligence officer who construed Japan's plans to attack Midway in the film Midway.

- Jackie Mason: Formerly a rabbi like three of his brothers, he became a greatly popular comedian.
- Jay Black: The star singer for "Jay and the Americans." His soaring voice made for such hits as "Cara Mia," "This Magic Moment," "Come a Little Bit Closer" and my own favorite, "Granada." He was recruited to replace the original "Jay" while working at a Thom McAnn's shoe store in New York. His given name, David Blatt, was changed to Black by mistake. "I was on the Mike Douglas show. One day Mike asked me what my last name was and I mumbled Blatt. He said, 'Black?' I said yes, a little lie. But everyone loved the name. Mike Douglas died without knowing he named me." Jay was a friend of John Gotti and sang at the weddings of two of his children.
- Stephen Sondheim: A Broadway immortal, he wrote for West Side Story, Sweeney Todd, Gypsy, A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum and A Little Night Music—sometimes just lyrics, at others, both lyrics and music.

ST. BLAISE | FEBRUARY 3

You may be familiar with the annual "blessing of throats" that many parishes in the United States use to commemorate the beloved bishop and martyr. St. Blaise lived in the fourth century in Turkey and Armenia. Due to religious persecution, he was forced to flee and hide in a cave in the back country in order to save his life.

History has it that one day a group of hunters stumbled upon where St. Blaise was living. They found the bishop kneeling in prayer, surrounded by wolves, lions, and bears that he had tamed. The legend has it that as the hunters dragged Blaise off to prison, a mother came with her young son who had a fish bone lodged in his throat. At Blaise's command, the child was able to cough up the bone and thus lived.

On February 3, we remember the saint on his feast day by taking two candles, crossing them against the throat, and saying the following prayer:

Through the intercession of St. Blaise, bishop and martyr, may God deliver you from ailments of the throat and from every other evil. In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

STEWARDSHIP

“Love is patient, love is kind. It is not jealous, it is not pompous...” (1 Corinthians 13:4)

Do you get jealous? Do you focus more on the things that other people have than on the gifts that God has given to you? Are you pompous? Do you acquire more possessions to impress others? At times we are all guilty of these things. Pray for Stewardship with humility. Humility helps us become less “self-centered” and become more “God-centered” for the sake of others.
