OUR YOUTH MINISTRY IN ACTION

NIGHT OUT WITH THE BISHOP
 Our Youth Ministry attended a special evening with Auxiliary Bishop Michael Saporito (far left) for faith sharing and prayer. Bishop Saporito spent a lot of time taking questions from attendees. His heartfelt stories and prayers for our young people were greatly appreciated. Shown left is Saint Joseph Youth Ministry member Ian Smith with the Bishop.

Fr. Christian (opposite), Spiritual Director of our Youth Ministry, blessed the throats of our members in honor of the feast of St. Blaise at our recent Teen Mass. Members also participated in a Teen Synod listening session (below) while enjoying pizza.

Our Youth Ministry (above), under the direction of Youth Minister Ellen Solinas, spent a great evening under the stars and on the ice followed by hot chocolate and prayers at the fire pit.

WORLD MARRIAGE DAY

Feb. 13

A WORLD MARRIAGE DAY PRAYER

Father,
 We thank you for your tremendous gift of the Sacrament of Marriage.
 Help us to witness to its glory by a life of growing intimacy.
 Teach us the beauty of forgiveness so we may become more and more One in Heart, Mind, and Body.
 Strengthen our dialogue and help us become living signs of your love.
 Make us grow more in love with the Church so we may renew the Body of Christ.
 Make us a sign of unity in the name of Jesus, our Lord and Brother.
Amen.

~ Fr. Bill Dilgen, S.M.M.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

2021 Deaths of Business Notables:

- Bernard Madoff: In an historic fraud, he bilked people out of $65 billion by creating phony statements at his investment firm. Among those who lost their life's savings were Elie Wiesel (survivor of the Holocaust and world-famous writer) and the Wilpon family, former owners of the Mets baseball team, and thousands of elderly people. His son Mark committed suicide on the second anniversary of the revelation of the schemer's misdeeds.
- Spencer Silver: In 1968, his experiments yielded an adhesive that left no residue. A colleague, Art Fry, came up with the idea of using the results as bookmarks—for choir hymnals. The ultimate outcome was Post-It Notes. Silver's employer, 3M, gained the financial benefits.
- Ron Popeil: A greatly successful seller of products on TV, including Veg-O-Matic, spray-on hair and the Pocket Fisherman. His signature line was, "But wait, there's more!"
- George M. Sherman: After working in managements for GE and Black and Decker, he ran the Danaher Corporation and saw it grow 20 times over. A close friend recalled that "relaxing with George was exhausting." He died from complications of a brain injury he suffered after his daily Peleton bike workout.
- Nikolas Davatzes: He took the A&E channel to a more popular success by altering its program contents. Before that, he had worked for Xerox. He said that "I had a great reason for going to Xerox. I was tired of being poor."
- Donald B. Poynter: He invented liquor-flavored toothpastes, making it possible to brush your teeth with whiskey, bourbon, rye or scotch tastes. He also enriched the novelty business with talking toilet seats, a hot water bottle shaped like Jayne Mansfield, a mini electric chair that administered a shock to anyone who picked it up, and the Little Black Box, which, when you turned it on, saw a hand emerge to turn it back off. His son Tim said that "every day to my dad was April Fools' Day."
- Peter Buck: He built up the Subway sandwich franchises, which now sell in 40,000 locations worldwide, after investing in a Connecticut sandwich shop. It took 15 years for the venture to turn a profit. He drove a 17-year-old car and ate at least 5 Subway sandwiches a week. Asked whether he was a billionaire, he replied, "Yeah, I guess so." (His net worth was $1.7 billion.) Even so, he said, "I can go any place in Danbury and nobody recognizes me."

Msgr. David Hubba

THE SYNOD "ONLINE SURVEY"

As part of a two-year Synodal journey initiated by Pope Francis and designed to re-examine the way the Catholic Church is listening to and walking with its parishioners, Saint Joseph is asking you to share your opinions on what is expected of today's Church, as asked in the following questions posed by the Pope:

- What does the Holy Spirit expect of the Church of the 21st Century?
- How is this "journeying together" happening today in our parish community?
- How are we "walking together" as a Church, and what steps does the Holy Spirit invite us to take in order to grow in our journeying together?

We invite you to reflect and pray on these questions and then share your thoughts, concerns and ideas in regard to them specifically by going to our website at sjcnj.org/links/

There you will find both the survey and additional information about the goals of the Synod from the Vatican and Archdiocesan websites as well as Cardinal Tobin's video message.

You are then welcome to fill out the Synod Survey found there on our website.
