FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Tuesday is All Saints Day, a holy day of obligation. It honors all of God's "holy ones," whether they are famous or not, or whether they are canonized (formally declared to be in heaven) or not. One of them is St. Cyprian.

Little is known about Cyprian's early life. He came from a family of Carthage that was well off, possibly of senatorial rank. Like St. Augustine, he became a teacher of rhetoric. Only rather late in his life did he become a Christian. He became the bishop of Carthage in the year 248, just two years before violent persecutions in the reign of the emperor Decius.

When the martyrdoms began, Cyprian's reaction was to get out of town. He said that he received a message in a dream to do so, since he could better care for the needs of his flock at a distance, something that sounds suspiciously like an attack of the nerves that, I imagine, might beset any of us in such dangerous circumstances—who can say?

But Cyprian, like St. Peter after his cowering before the slave girl's uncomfortable questions after Jesus's arrest, made up for his timid behavior by returning to his duties. Cyprian made up his mind to abandon his nice gardens and vineyards for a jail cell, resolving to face the prospect of martyrdom bravely, and even to situate himself in the path of the madness that then proceeded from the courts.

A few years later, when another murderous persecution of Christians erupted in 257, Cyprian was hauled before the authorities, where he refused to offer the required sacrifices to the emperor. He was duly sentenced to death by beheading, after which he replied, "Thanks be to God," and bravely met his fate.

After the first massacres of Christians that disturbed Cyprian's episcopal ministry, a terrible plague broke out in Carthage, and the dead and dying could be found throughout the city streets. It was then that Cyprian wrote his work On Mortality, in which he said:

Only in the heavens above are to be found true peace, sure repose, constant, enduring and eternal safety. There is our dwelling, there is our home. Who is there who would not hasten towards it? There a great multitude of the beloved await us: innumerable hosts of fathers, brothers, daughters and sons. There, too, is the glorious choir of the apostles, and the exulting prophets, and the countless multitudes of martyrs, crowned now with victory after their wars and their sufferings, and there you will find the triumphant virgins, and the merciful enjoying their rewards. Let us hasten thither with ardent desire, coming face to face with Christ. After the earthly comes the heavenly; after the small comes the great; after the temporary comes the eternal.

St. Cyprian recovered commendably from his earlier display of weakness. So many times in life what is important is not that we have failed and sinned, but that, with God's help, we persevere. He certainly did so, and deserves our admiration for it.

AN IMPORTANT LETTER FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Parishioners:

I am very grateful to all the parishioners for their continued support and generosity throughout this past year. Through your generosity, Saint Joseph continues to be a vibrant parish with many ministries that serve our community.

Below are some key points for the Parish Financial Report for the fiscal year that ended June 30, 2022, which can be seen opposite this letter on page 7 of our bulletin.

- St. Joseph Church had a deficit before Capital Projects of ($24,308) and an overall deficit of ($21,607) for fiscal year ended June 30, 2022.
- Sunday and Holyday collections totaled $51,568, which was $20,433 unfavorable to the budget and $20,333 (3.3%) lower than the previous year.
- Electronic giving is down from 50% of total collections in fiscal year 2021 to 45% in fiscal year 2022. The steady cash flow provided by electronic giving helped to sustain the Parish during Covid-19, making it easier to continue paying Parish bills. This is also true during summer months when many Parishioners are away, and on weekends when we have bad weather. If you have not already done so, please consider signing up for electronic giving at: sjcnj.churchgiving.com.
- Donations, Gifts, Bequests and Grants totaled $104,574, which was $16,274 higher than last year. Parishioners have been generous in donating for restricted purposes, particularly for repairs and maintenance. We are grateful for these donations, as the aging physical plant is always in need of repair.
- Included in Other Revenues of $78,750 was an insurance claim reimbursement of $24,395 to pay for the repairs from damage due to water and fallen trees at the lower school.
- Also included in Other Revenues is a rebate of $19,638 from the 2021 Archdiocese Annual Appeal. Thanks to the generosity of our Parishioners who contributed to the Archdiocesan Appeal, we not only received this rebate, but also a reduction in our Archdiocese Assessment expense equal to $16,293. These two items resulted in an additional $35,931 being available for Parish use. We are very grateful to all of the parishioners who supported the Annual Appeal and in turn helped St. Joseph Parish.
- Total expenses of $1,157,390 were less than anticipated in our budget. This was mainly due to savings from a vacant staff position and lower contracted services.
- Plant related and utilities expenses totaled $168,381 last year. In addition to $48,000 higher repair expense, we experienced had an unexpected 23% increase in our property and liability insurance premiums.
- For fiscal year 2023, the Parish is anticipating a ($109,724) deficit.

Father John, Father Christian and I, along with the trustees and finance council, are mindful of the difficult economic times. We will continue to do our best as good stewards of the Parish finances. We are very grateful for your generosity and look forward to working together in the year ahead.

Sincerely,

Rev. Msgr. David C. Hubba
