The Bread and Wine
for the week of
January 1, 2023

Is offered in loving memory of

Connor Glen Walsh

Requested by his mother.

FROM THE DESK OF FR. CHRISTIAN SCALO

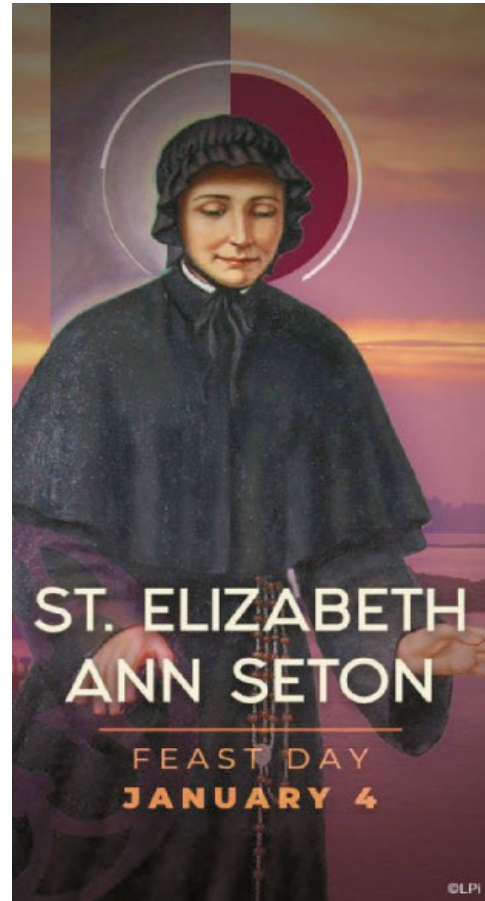

What does it mean to begin again? Much of the conversation around this time of the year, and understandably so, is about having a fresh start - remembering the past year with its ups and downs and looking forward to the new year with joyful expectation. Looking back on this past year, I feel deeply moved with gratitude. Among a plethora of things, I am grateful for being a part of this beautiful parish. I am grateful that we have such loving and caring people who really put their heart and soul into their faith and community, and I am grateful that we have an amazing staff who is dedicated to the mission of our parish to spread the Gospel message.

I think it is really special when January 1 falls on a Sunday. What better way to start off the new year than with an attitude of faith at Mass with the Lord. To put God in first place. Who knows what 2023 will look like. I have no idea! The world is a complicated place... and we are all complicated people. Undoubtedly there will be both good moments and bad moments - our lives and circumstances aren't perfect. Yet in the midst of it all, God will walk right by our sides pouring out abundant blessings if we are ready to seek them out and receive them. We are a people of hope and we put our faith and trust in God who never disappoints.

I truly believe that God has some amazing blessings in store for all of us as a parish community, looking toward the future in 2023 and beyond. We have all been through a lot, and yet here we are together, united, and determined to be people who strive every day to love God and one another more and more. This year will bring us many opportunities to love, to uplift, to continue our journey to becoming the people and parish that God calls us to be. I pray that God's abundant blessings will be upon you and your families as we together, step into 2023.

With Prayer,
Fr. Christian

St. Elizabeth Ann Seton | January 4

The patron saint of Catholic schools, St. Elizabeth Ann Seton (August 28, 1774 – January 4, 1821) was born in New York City to a prominent family of the Episcopal faith. When she turned 19, she married a wealthy businessman with whom she had five children. He later died of tuberculosis in 1803, leaving her a young widow. After discovering the Catholic faith in Italy, where her husband had died, she returned to New York and converted to Catholicism in 1805.

After several years struggling as a single mother, Elizabeth moved in 1809 to Emmitsburg, Maryland, where she founded the Sisters of Charity of St. Joseph, the first community for religious women established in the United States. She also began St. Joseph's Academy and Free School, which started a chain reaction of Catholic-based education in the United States that continues today.

St. Elizabeth Ann Seton was canonized September 14, 1975 in St. Peter's Square by Pope Paul VI and was the first citizen born in the United States to be given the title of "saint."

THANK YOU FOR GIVING TO THOSE IN NEED THROUGH OUR "GIVING TREE"

A heartfelt thank you to the many parishioners who contributed to our annual Christmas "Giving Tree." This year, the Giving Tree was a big success!

Parishioners donated over $10,000 worth of gift cards (to such businesses as Shop Rite, Target, Amazon, Marshalls/TJMaxx, Walgreens and Walmart, as well as Visa/MC).

Because of your generosity, Saint Joseph Parish has been able to help a number of organizations (see chart) make Christmas a little happier for families in need. Thank you for making a difference.

"What good is it, my brothers, if someone says he has faith but does not have works? Can that faith save him? If a brother or sister is poorly clothed and lacking in daily food, and one of you says to them, 'Go in peace, be warmed and filled,' without giving them the things needed for the body, what good is that? So also faith by itself, if it does not have works, is dead." (James 2:14-17)

GOSPEL

When something wonderful happens, we want to find out all about it, then go tell everyone we know. That's just what the shepherds did. We also want to think about it again and again. That's just what Mary did. Jesus has come to us. Let's do what the shepherds and Mary did.

PRAYER

Dear God, you give me a new year and new chances to love you. I want to tell everyone about you like the shepherds. I want to think about your love like Mary.
