A note from Fr. Christian

We are people of hope. Our Catholic faith, which has stood firm for thousands of years, is built on a pillar of hope. Where does this hope come from? It comes from knowing that God is always kind, merciful, loving, and forgiving. God doesn't sit up there in heaven just waiting for us to make a mistake. Rather, he looks upon us with a deep love and affection like a parent who looks upon their child with great rejoicing and a burning love that words can't describe. The Gospel from this weekend, in one of the more commonly recognizable verses even in the secular world, makes it perfectly clear. "For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life. For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but to save the world through him." (John 3:16-17). God wants all people to be saved, to experience the gift of eternal life, to be filled with hope and peace and forgiveness as we continue our earthly journey toward our heavenly home. Jesus' desire to bring all people salvation showed all throughout his public ministry. Jesus showed it in the way he spoke with kindness to the woman at the well, in the way he saved the woman who committed adultery from a brutal death by stoning, in how he forgave the repentant thief on the cross and opened the gates of paradise to him.

God will do absolutely everything he can to show us the right path and to give us his grace to choose it! Our job is to take the first step along that path and to surrender in faith and trust, like the Lord himself said, "for whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will save it" (Luke 9:24). We might stumble along the way, we may have moments of doubt, we might not understand why some things in our lives happen the way they happen or why things turn out the way they do. That's ok... because God has a plan for each and every one of us and that plan is always right. Our job is to believe, to trust in that plan despite the setbacks that we all inevitably experience. To trust that God always has our best interest at heart. To encourage one another that good will always triumph over evil and that the struggles and adversities that we face in our lives will help us to grow as mature Christian disciples. Jesus will guide us... we are invited to follow. May we choose his path today and each day, while also helping and encouraging others to do the same.

With Prayer,
Fr. Christian

NEW FLAG POLE

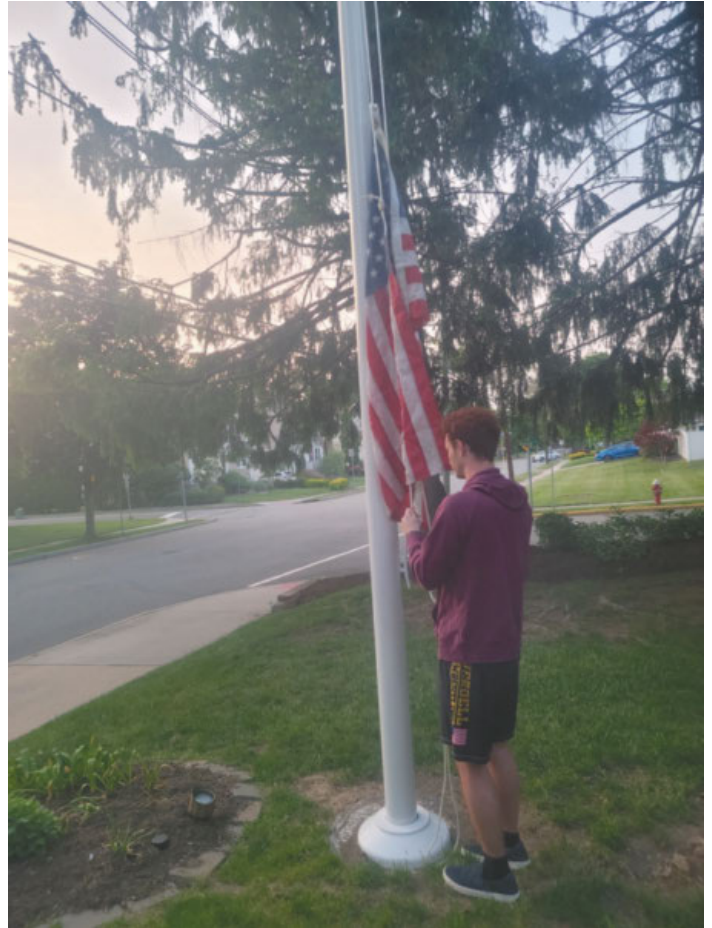

The flag pole in front of the Youth/Curry House has been replaced. The new pole is in remembrance of Sgt. David Solinas who was recently killed in a military helicopter crash. On Tuesday evening 5/23/23 the Youth Ministry raised David's Flag, which had flown on the old pole, and was given to the Youth Group by David.

David's brother Aidan had the honor of raising the flag while his mother Ellen and the rest of the group watched. The flag has a lot of meaning for Solinas' family, the Youth Group and our parish.

In about three weeks a plaque will be added to the base of the pole which will honor our Parishioners who served this great country and who paid the Ultimate Sacrifice doing so. The plaque will honor Sgt. David Solinas, Major Marie Rossi, and PFC Charles Paul Ellis.

Please pray for The Solinas Family, our Parish and all who have served or are serving in the military to protect our freedoms.
