A note from Fr. Christian

Regardless of how old or young we are, or the experiences that we've had in life, no matter how close or far we have been from our faith... the Lord Jesus invites all of us to conversion. There is always more work to be done! Much of the Christian life centers on humility. To be humble doesn't mean to be a "push over." It doesn't mean to sit back idly while others might try to take advantage of us. Being humble means having the courage to allow God to be the center of our lives and to recognize that God is in control! Sure, it is important that we work hard to achieve our goals and put effort into our lives. We can't progress even in the spiritual life without effort on our part; sitting back and doing nothing won't get us very far!

It is also very important to recognize, however, that we don't have all the answers and that our efforts ALONE aren't enough! We need Jesus and the grace of God to come into our lives and inspire our mind and heart to seek out the things in our midst that are good, true, and beautiful, so that we can prepare ourselves to experience the eternal life that God desires to bestow on all of us as his beloved sons and daughters.

As we get closer to Palm Sunday and with Holy Week fast approaching, perhaps we can make an effort these days to go even deeper in our own life of prayer. Here are some ideas for things we can do on our own or together at home with our families:

1. Consider taking some time in the evening to review our day with Jesus, asking him to show us the times where we followed him well and the moments where we could have followed him better.
2. Pray with some passages of Scripture that have touched your heart in the past or read some parts of the Bible you may feel less familiar with.
3. Take a moment each day to write down some things you are grateful for and thank God for those gifts and blessings.

These are just a few suggestions! There are so many more great things that we can do, far too many to list. The goal is that we are striving to keep Jesus in first place in our daily life and continue to live out our discipleship with commitment and intentionality.

May God bless us all!!!

*With prayer,
Fr. Christian*

Respect Life Adoption Journey:
MARCH - 2 MONTHS

I am about the size of a black bean and weigh about 1/3 of an ounce. My organs (heart, brain, stomach, liver, kidneys, lungs) have formed and my brain waves can be recorded. I have started to move around! I can even swallow.

Thank you for praying for mommy and me.

Please continue to pray this prayer daily for the child you have spiritually adopted:

"Lord Jesus, Holy Mary, and St. Joseph, I love you very much. I beg you to spare the life of the unborn baby that I have spiritually adopted who is in danger of abortion. Lord Jesus, may your peace and your mercy embrace the hearts, minds and souls of the family, friends, and anyone who contemplates or encourages this abortion. Lead them all to conversion and to Your Sacred and Eucharistic Heart."

Offer one Our Father and one Hail Mary. Please pray! This baby is counting on you. Please contact Melinda and Judy at StJosephRespectLife@gmail.com if you have any questions about our spiritual adoption program, which will continue through October (Respect Life Month).

"You are our Father, we are the clay, and You are the potter, and we are the work of Your hand" -Isaiah 64:8

To help stop the anti-life push in the world, the Church encourages the spiritual adoption of an unborn child. For 9 months, pray daily that one particular but unknown child's life be spared from abortion and be allowed to continue to live.

*"Lord Jesus, Holy Mary and St. Joseph, I love you very much. I beg you to spare the life of the unborn baby that I have spiritually adopted who is in danger of abortion.
