A note from Fr. Christian

"...And behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age" (Matt 28:20). These were the words that Jesus said to his disciples after he had given them their mission to go out and make new disciples, to go out and to bring people into a relationship with God, to help generations to move toward what is good, true, and beautiful with eyes fixed on heaven and eternal life with God. We, today in 2024, are given that same mission of helping to bring people to Jesus... and the Lord is truly with us as we strive to carry out that monumental calling.

God is always cheering for us... wanting us to have the very best and to make good choices. He's with us when we're alone and struggling. He's with us in the brightest, most joyful moments of our life to share in that happiness, and also in the darkest, saddest moments of our life to help us through our grief. There is no one who understands us better... no one who knows what we are going through better... than God himself. We can turn to him any place, any time, because we know that he understands.

As we gather with family and friends this Memorial Day weekend, we pause to remember with deep gratitude all of those men and women who have lost their lives in service to our country and the families, friends, and loved ones who mourn their loss. We especially remember those from our parish who gave their life in service, especially our most recent loss of Sgt. David Solinas Jr. We remember and hold in prayer all those who are currently deployed and continue to risk their lives for our protection, as well as those who have previously served. May the Lord Jesus guide us, his children, always on the path of love, peace, and healing.

*With prayer,
Fr. Christian*

The Society of Saint Lydia at St. Joseph's Church

We are excited to announce a new chapter of the The Society of Saint Lydia here at St. Joseph's Church! We invite all Catholic women to join us, as we follow the example of Saint Lydia to live a life of devotion to God and service to the Church. Our community has small group gatherings and events here at our parish, and at other locations, that include days of reflection, workshops, and retreats. In our small group gatherings, we encourage each other through prayer, study, apostolate, sorority, and witness. Together, we gently foster our communities, lead others in the faith, and spread the Gospel. You may have seen one of us at Mass wearing a silk purple shawl. Please consider this purple shawl an open invitation to ask us about Saint Lydia and our beautiful society. For more information, please email thesocietyofsaintlydia@gmail.com or visit our website at thesocietyofsaintlydia.org.
